Spring Cleaning w/Archangel Jophiel

Spring brings a joyous energy of newness and hope; flowers and tree's begin to bloom with the essence, and proof that nature is always at work creating.

Each day you can begin anew because you have the power of choice, your capacity to choose how you want to experience your life, is one of the most precious gifts of free will. You have the power to experience life from an entirely new and healthful perspective, even when circumstances appear otherwise. This is an opportune time to weed your garden and cleanse the mind and spirit of limiting beliefs.

For this month's Angel Circle we will be working with the energy of Archangel Jophiel; her energy promotes the nature of healthful and abundant environments within our inner and outer worlds.
